

Bernadette Andreosso-O'Callaghan

Jean Monnet Professor of European Economic Integration and Director of the Euro-Asia Centre, University of Limerick.

Received a B.Econ Sc from the Université de Franche Comté (1981), a Diploma in European Studies from the College of Europe, Brugge (1982), an M.Econ.Sc from the Université de Paris, Panthéon Sorbonne (1983), and a PhD from the Université des Sciences et Techniques de Lille (1986).

In the area of civil society, is a supporter of children s' rights movements.

Has been visiting researcher and Professor in various European and Asian Universities (such as Lyon Ecole de Management, Chulalongkorn University of Bangkok, Vietnam National University in Hanoi, Seoul National University, and Paul Valéry University of Montpellier).

Major research interests lie in the area of economic integration, with a particular focus on EU-Asian relations (trade, development issues, investment and technology), and on structural change in European and Asian countries. Is author or co-author of Industrial Economics and Organization. A European Perspective (2nd Ed., Mc Graw & Hill, 2005, with D. Jacobson), Regional Integration - Europe and Asia Compared (Ashgate Publishing, 2005, with W.Moon), The Economics of European Agriculture (Palgrave: 2003), The Changing Economic Environment in Asia (Palgrave: 2001, co-edited with Bassino and Jaussaud), as well as of articles published in Asian Economic Journal, Journal of Economic Integration, Japan and the World Economy, Applied Economics, etc.