

Hassania CHALBI-DRISSI

Moroccan economist and sociologist, Dr. Hassania CHALBI-DRISSI was advisor for Moroccan Minister of Foreign Affairs, expert for Consultative Permanent Committee of Maghreb and university lecturer and researcher. At present, she is consultant for international organisations, specialising in gender. Her works include « Femme arabe et prise de décision », « Féminisme arabo-musulman », « Femme Environnement, Développement ». She is the leading founder of the Association pour la Promotion de l'Entrepreneuriat Féminin, founder member of several other organisations, including IGTN (International Gender and Trade Network), for which she serves as North African focal point of its African branch, GENTA (Gender and Trade Network in Africa). She is also active in the Third World Forum.